Instruction.

For Boys and Young Men.—City. A LIVE SCHOOL IN HEALTHY ACTION. Packard's Business College has been called "a live school" because it is not dead. This is an objection worthy of the attention of those who have money to spend on education. It is not only a live school, but it is a school that draws the breath of life, but it is alive in the best interests of the student. It is not only a live school, but it is a school for the "story of a live school," which is a very readable book, and will be read with interest, or better, by calling personally and examining its process.
